WELCOME

Panto season is fast approaching, and we have a fantastic one coming, which will run throughout December and into the new year. Beauty & the Beast is a beloved tale as old as time that will be sure to make you laugh, cry, and fall in love with a host of hilarious and hairy characters. We can't wait to help you make magical festive memories with our traditional Rotherham panto.

BUT before that our incredible autumn/winter programme will tempt you to visit again and again! We're starting the season with a showcase of local talent who are making waves: follow Ellie May through the twists and turns of a Subdural Hematoma in her spoken word show; hear the vocal harmonies and thoughtful instrumentation of Martyn Scott; and join Break-Out Arts for a story of ambition, murder, betrayal, loss, and power in Macbeth.

There's also great drama including The Tell-Tale Heart, iconic music from shows like One Night in Dublin, theatre for all the family such as Another Dragon Roars, and astounding magic from The Greatest Magician, and loads more!

See you soon!

Eleanor May Blackburn

Subdural Hematoma

Wed 7 Sep, 7.30pm

Tickets: £8, conc £6

Subdural Hematoma is the story of several people's journey through a brain injury and a celebration of what lies ahead on the other side. Mixing the voices of parents with tragic and, at times, highly comedic moments – you will not know if you are supposed to laugh or cry. Hell, go ahead and do both!

Follow Ellie May through the twists and turns of hospital life in this spoken word piece with factual audio recordings, physical theatre and verbatim.

DRAMA

Break-Out Arts

Macbeth

Fri 9 & Sat 10 Sep, 7.30pm

Tickets: £10, conc £8

Break-Out Arts bring you William Shakespeare's Macbeth: a story of ambition, murder, betrayal, loss and power.

A war zone... now... or anytime. The dead and grieving witnesses of man's inhumanity to man re-tell the same tale endlessly.

This fast-paced performance uses only simple props, set and costume with four actors playing all the roles. The actors are all young professional actors who have studied at RNN, University Centre Rotherham, as well as other universities or drama schools and have returned to Rotherham to work for Break-Out Arts.

The Little Mermaid

Tue 13 to Sat 17 Sep, 7.15pm

(Sat 2.15pm matinee)

Tickets: £18, conc £16 (Tue & Sat mat only)

In a magical kingdom beneath the sea, the beautiful young mermaid Ariel longs to leave her ocean home to live in the world above.

Based on Hans Christian Andersen's beloved story and the animated classic, Disney's The Little Mermaid is a hauntingly beautiful love story for the ages. With music by eight-time Academy Award winner Alan Menken, lyrics by Howard Ashman and Glenn Slater, and a compelling book by Doug Wright, this fishy fable will capture your heart.

Tell Tale Hearts

Trunk Tales

Sat 8 Oct, 10am & 12 noon

Tickets: FREE | Age 4+

A lady, a trunk and a collection of stories from around the globe. An interactive storytelling show designed to unleash the imagination of children (and those of their adults too!)

A trunk is a box for belongings, belongings that have travelled far and wide... Especially when it belongs to this particular lady.

Join her to share in tales of boastful toads, magical fish and fearsome beasts of the wild woods. Using puppetry and the contents of her magical trunk she will create Arabic seas; epic mountains; fields of turnips and the tallest trees.

Children are invited into the performance by creating waves, helping to find a suitor for the mouse bride and even acting out a character or two from the stories.

Hero & Leander

Fri 21 Oct, 7.30pm

Tickets: £10, conc £8

Sing, dance and cry with us in this bittersweet gig theatre show. Six multi-instrumentalists tell an epic seaside tale through songs encompassing folk, indie, sea shanties and choral music. A story of bad rulers, worse weather, and how we keep going when everything is flipping terrible.

Two towns, one rich and one poor, stand separated by a narrow strip of ocean. When the borders close and ships stop sailing between them, two lovers are left stranded on either side. Unphased, Leander takes to swimming across the channel to meet Hero, guided by the light of the lighthouse where she lives. But the jealous and vengeful Hephaestus, carrying an ancient grudge, plots to separate them with a flood like neither town has ever seen.

We all know this will probably end badly. But just maybe, this time, it will turn out different...
